

2. When the Power of Jesus Transforms a Life

November 25, 2018 | Isaiah 9:1-7

There are some things that only Jesus can do. One of those is to totally and eternally transform a person. When Jesus steps into a life, the old has gone, and the new has come. That which was broken is made whole. That which was hopeless is hopeful. When we meet Jesus, nothing again will be the same. He was, is, and is to come!

God's promises brought hope.

- Be careful, keep calm, don't be afraid, and do not lose heart!—7:4
- Stand firm.—7:9
- Emmanuel—God is with us!—8:10
- Nevertheless...No more gloom!—9:1

Isaiah identifies what is:

- Joy to the farmer
- Victory to the soldier

So how bad were the Midianites?

- The Midianites terrorized God's people seven years.—Judges 6:1
- The Israelites lost their homes and lived in caves.—Judges 6:2
- The Israelites lost all their crops and livestock.—Judges 6:3

Here's the good news!

What God did in the past, He can and will do again right now!

1. He shattered the yoke that burdened them.
Jesus can set us free!
2. He shattered the bar across their shoulders.
He gives us a new identity.
3. He shattered the rod of their oppressors.
He frees us from the torture of sin, Satan, and hell.

In Christ, and in Christ alone, we have total and complete victory!
