

5. Peter Reinstated

February 3, 2019 | John 21: 15-22

How do you come back from failure? How can you move forward after direct disobedience to God? Peter's Here to There journey no longer looks the same. Peter denied knowing Jesus three times after he boldly proclaimed that he would never abandon Jesus. How do you come back from that? Will God use the unfaithful to fulfill His plans? John 21 gives us insight into how God restores His disciple, Peter, and how we, too, may be restored in our Here to There journey.

Peter's Denial (Luke 22:54-62)	Peter's Reinstatement (John 21:15-22)
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> But he denied it, saying, "Woman, I do not know him." 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> "Yes, Lord; you know that I love you." He said to him, "Feed my lambs."
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> But Peter said, "Man, I am not." 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Yes, Lord; you know that I love you." He said to him, "Tend my sheep."
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> But Peter said, "Man, I do not know what you are talking about." 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> "Lord, you know everything; you know that I love you." Jesus said to him, "Feed my sheep."

The Process of Being Reinstated

1. Truly repent.—James 5:16
2. Use God's grace.
 - God's grace is sufficient.—2 Corinthians 12:9
 - Do not become a grace abuser. —Jude 1:4
3. Fix your focus.
 - Jesus consistently says, "Follow me."
 - Do not dwell on the past.—Revelation 12:10
 - Stop comparing your journey with the person next to you. —John 21:20-23
 - Step confidently into your future.
