

How does God's character speak to you today?

God is Holy

1 Peter 1:13-21

When we sense God's presence in difficult times, we embrace a faithful Father. When we fail in every way, we encounter a redeeming God. When we choose to worship, obey, and serve Him apart from all that the world demands, we experience the holiness of God.

God is Love

1 John 4:7-12

How can we understand the love of God—a love that transcends the human definition to a point beyond our comprehension? God's love is unconditional, not based on feelings or emotions. He doesn't love us because we're lovable or because we make Him feel good; He loves us not because of who we are or what we've done, but because of who He is.

God is Omnipresent

Isaiah 43:2

The omnipresence of God means that He exists in all places at all times. He is not limited by time or space. Every valley you've walked—past, present and future, God has been beside you.

God is Omniscient

Psalm 139:1-6

The omniscience of God is the principle that God is all-knowing; that He encompasses all knowledge of the universe—past, present, and future. In the beginning, God created the world and everything in it, including knowledge.

God is Omnipotent

Ephesians 1:18-23

El Shaddai means “self-sufficient” or “almighty.” We serve an omnipotent, all-powerful God who has the ability to do anything He wills. This power is unlimited and exercised effortlessly within His perfect nature.
